

CHURCH DIRECTORY

1953
EDITION

"The Churches of Christ salute you"
Rom. 16:16

PREFACE

A few years ago, with the assistance of many brethren, I put out a mimeographed church directory which proved more popular than was anticipated as they were soon all distributed. Before long, however, it was out-of-date and greatly in need of revision. Brother Roy Loney contacted me and demonstrated a willingness to assist in making up a new printed edition. He has had the big end of the load in this present work and you are now beholding the result.

It is our trust that the directory will be helpful to the brotherhood, but, let it be remembered, we are not sending it out as an official guide of fellowship. It is not our claim, or our wish, that this little booklet should be used as an authority on the faithfulness or unfaithfulness of any congregation. We have merely listed the congregations among which there appears to be a whole-hearted cooperation existing. It could not be expected that it is perfect, even in this respect. We are deeply grateful for the many who have encouraged and helped in this effort.

Harold Shasteen.

The asterik (*) following the name of a town that the congregation is nearest to, denotes a rural congregation.

“Cor.” denotes a correspondent. This is not necessarily an elder or even a leader of the congregation.

Blank pages are for additional information and addresses you may wish to keep.
